Defence Technology Prize 2022 Individual (Engineering) Award Winner

Mr Wong Chia Sern

Defence Science and Technology Agency

CITATION

Mr Wong Chia Sern, Director (Infocomm IT Infrastructure) from the Defence Science and Technology Agency, has been instrumental in the design, implementation and operation of large-scale, secure, and resilient networks for MINDEF and the SAF. He has harnessed and adapted commercial technologies to develop architectures and systems to address unique requirements. In addition, Mr Wong has led the development and integration of various communication networks supporting critical SAF operations such as the Island Air Defence, ensuring long-term supportability, end-to-end resiliency and interoperability across the networked system. In recognition of his outstanding achievements and contributions, Mr Wong is awarded the DTP2022 Individual (Engineering) Award.
